

Northwest Wisconsin WDA #7 Limited English Proficiency Policy

(Revised June 15, 2018)

POLICY STATEMENT

Northwest Wisconsin WDA #7 is committed to:

Providing equal opportunity in all programs and services to ensure full compliance with all civil rights laws, including Title VI of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, which requires non-discrimination on the basis of national origin. Equal opportunity includes physical and program access for persons with disabilities and program access for persons with Limited English Proficiency (LEP). Program and physical access for persons with disabilities is covered in the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended, Section 504.

It is the policy of this WDB or Subrecipient to provide language access services to populations of persons with Limited English Proficiency (LEP) who are eligible to be served by our programs. Such services will be focused on providing meaningful access to our programs, services and/or benefits

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions and other provisions are applicable to this policy:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d.et seq. And its implementing regulation at 45 CFR part 80 - The law that protects individuals from discrimination based on their race, color, or national origin under any program or activity that receives Federal financial assistance.
- Limited English Proficient - (LEP) Those customers who cannot speak, read, write, or understand the English language at a level that permits them to interact effectively with program service providers.
- Vital documents - A document, either paper or electronic, that contains information that is critical for accessing the provider/WDB or Subrecipient services and/or benefits; letters or notices that require a response from the customer; and documents that inform customers of free language assistance. Examples of documents containing vital information include, but are not limited to applications, consent and complaint forms; notices of rights and responsibilities; notices advising LEP individuals of their rights under this part, including the availability of free language assistance; rulebooks; written tests that do not assess English language competency, but rather assess competency for a particular license, job, or skill for which English proficiency is not required; and letters or notices that require a response from the beneficiary or applicant, participant, or employee.
- Vital information – Information, whether written, oral or electronic, that is necessary for an individual to understand how to obtain any aid, benefit, service, and/or training; necessary for an individual to obtain any aid, benefit, service, and/or training; or required by law.

- Safe Harbor - The threshold that permits programs to decide when a written translation is required in order to comply with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The following are the thresholds:
 - Written translations of WDB or Subrecipient vital documents will be provided for each eligible language group that constitutes at least 5% or 1,000 individuals, whichever is less, of the population of persons eligible to be served or encountered by programs in the service area.
 - If there are fewer than 50 persons in a language group, the recipient does not translate vital written materials, but provides written notice in the primary language of the LEP group of their right to oral interpretation of those written materials, free of cost.
- Major LEP Language Groups - The populations of persons with Limited English Proficiency (LEP) in Wisconsin that represent 5% or 1,000 individuals in the area. For Wisconsin, the Statewide Major LEP Language Groups are Spanish and Hmong.
- Qualified Interpreters - Qualified interpreters have: demonstrated proficiency in English and the second language; demonstrated knowledge in both languages of relevant specialized terms or concepts; and documentation of completion of training on the skills and ethics of interpretation, and awareness of relevant cultural issues.
- Interactive Voice Response - (IVR System) an automated system that enables callers to obtain and provide information over the telephone in English and other languages.
